

HERALD CAMERA-MEN TELL THEIR STORY.

PLANE DEVELOPMENTS FORECAST WINGS FOR MAN

New developments in aviation forecast a day when man can fly simply by attaching wings to his shoulders, say European physicists and inventors. Photos show newest flying machines; right, vertical-rising windmill plane, now being tried out in England; left, above, tailless "fool-proof" machine, another England development; left, below, aerial rotorship devised by Elpidio Piccoli, Italian.

Budlong Smiles

Newport social glory sought by Milton J. Budlong, New York auto dealer, and his wife, has gone glimmering as a result of his divorce suit against her. Photo shows him on way to trial.

Biggest Bill

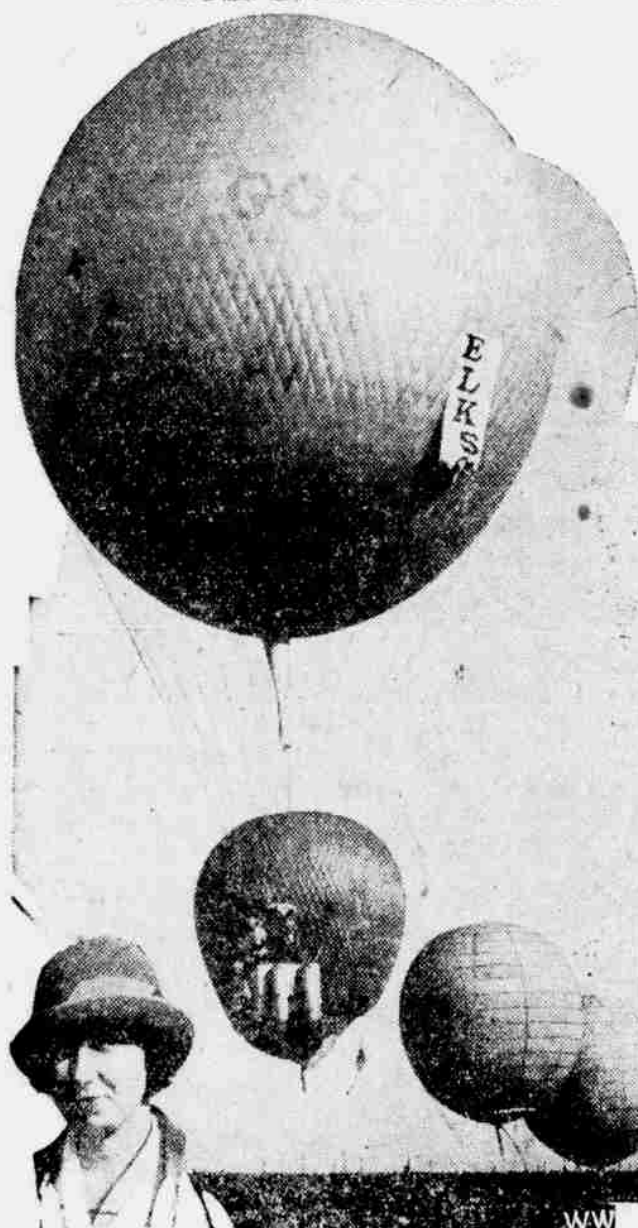

Charles H. Grakelow, director of public welfare in Philadelphia, will be the "biggest Bill" among all the Elks for a year. He was elected grand exalted ruler at order's conclave in Chicago.

"BILL" HAYWOOD TOILS IN SIBERIA

"Big Bill" Haywood, one time chief of I. W. W. in America, has consistently dodged camera since he fled to Russia to avoid serving term in Leavenworth, and this is only photo taken of him in many months. It shows him at "Kusbas", an industrial colony in Siberia operated by American "Wobblies." Note his clothing.

WOMAN IN BALLOON RACE

A woman proved her mettle as a balloonist in Chicago air race. Edna Honeywell (inset) is seen going aloft with her father, H. E. Honeywell, at beginning of contest.

CONNIE SEEKING DIVORCE? NAY!

CONSTANCE TALMADGE AND HER HUSBAND ALASTAIR MACINTOSH

Reports that Constance Talmadge, film actress, and her second husband, Alastair MacIntosh, are a divorce, are denied. They're over there they aver. Photo shows them in London.

YANKS INVADE MEXICO TO THWART FLOOD

American ranchers living in Imperial Valley of California invaded Mexico to help Mexicans stop a break in a Colorado river levee which threatened to do huge damage. Photo shows extent of flood, and ranchers bringing rock by train to repair the hole.

THIS SUIT SUITS THE CENSOR

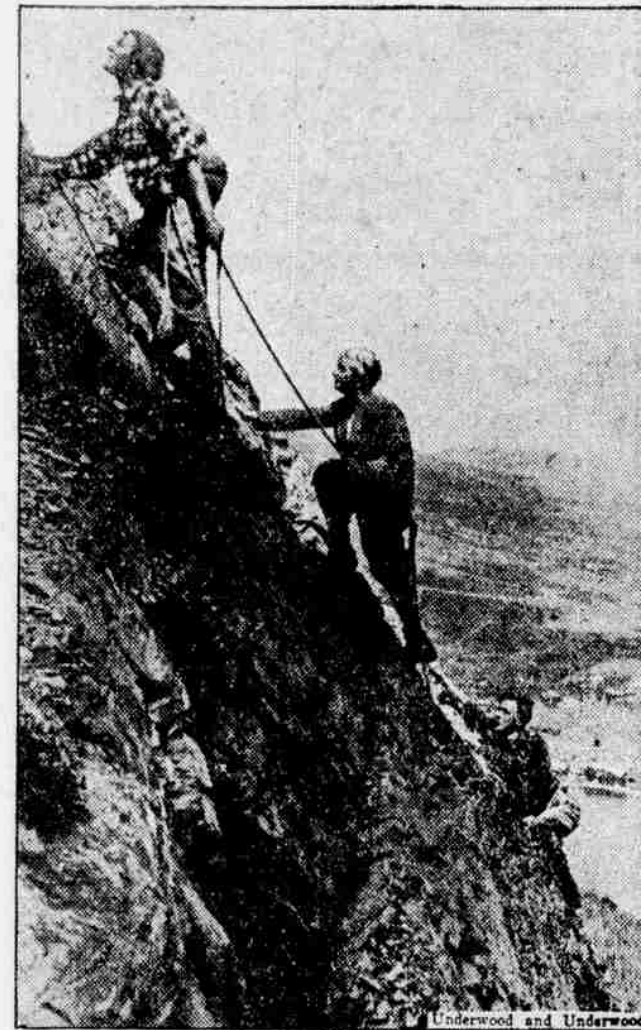

Sheriff of Los Angeles county chose Wanda Fontaine to be "Miss Los Angeles" in national beauty contest. Furthermore he officially approves of her costume, it is declared.

Yacht Champion

Second time in succession "Heidenheim" is champion sailing yacht of Gulf of Mexico. It is seen winning annual speed race off Bixoli, Miss., from eight other entries.

U. S. ATTRACTS EUROPE'S CLIMBERS

These three climbers having reached highest peaks in Switzerland and Scandinavia, are seeking more worlds to conquer in U. S., and are exploring Glacier National Park. From top down, Hans Reiss, Norwegian; Dorothy Pilley, English; Count Henckel Donnermark, Germany, scaling Stark Peak.

CHAMPION BUTTER COW

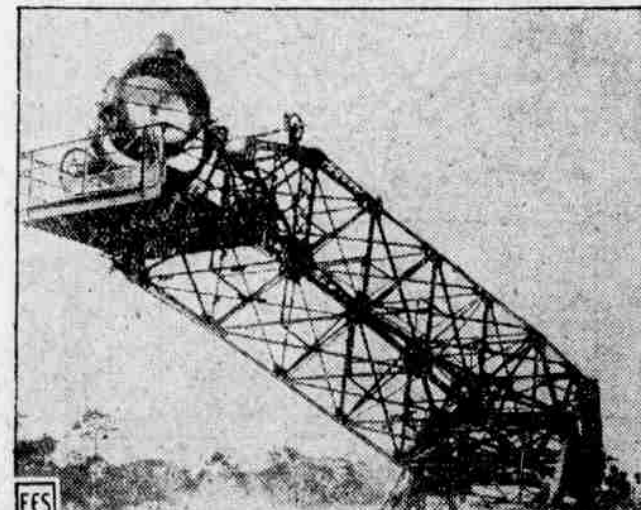

"Sophie's Emily," Randolph farm, Lockport, N. Y., now champion Jersey butter cow, it is claimed, has produced a total of 92,800 pounds of milk and 4,585 pounds of butter-fat in six years.

Lincoln's Milkman

Fondest memory of Charles Bock, 98, Los Angeles, is the delivery of milk and butter to Abraham Lincoln house in Springfield, Ill.; when Abe was just a lawyer.

NEWEST COAST DEFENSE DEVICE

Disappearing searchlight towers are newest U. S. coast defense device. They carry 60-inch searchlights, of one billion candlepower intensity. When lowered, they are hidden from planes and enemy observers. It cannot be stated where this one is located.